

Environmental Management

We promote environmental management taking into consideration the minimization of environmental burden and the maximization of economic value at the same time.

Environmental Impact Resulting from Business Activities

This indicates the INPUT the resources and energy needed for our group's business activities, as well as our OUTPUT in the form of the environmental impact produced through our business activities.

